*IN MEMORIAM, WE DEDICATE
THIS BOOK TO KEN ECKLOFF*

For all the fun
We've had with you,
For all the love
You gave us, too.
For every time
We felt all right,
For every day
And every night.

You were our friend;
You made us "high."
You helped us laugh,
And you made us cry.

Memories of you
We'll ne'er forget;
Our short time with you
We'll ne'er regret.
Your years passed by
Like the hours in a day;
But your memory, my friend,
Shall evermore stay.

We have grown with the school . . . We are the first graduating class to have completed four years at Westwood High School . . . With the passing seasons we, like you, have been nurtured and have grown . . . We hope to prove ourselves a successful "harvest."

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

The spirit of Westwood High was greater than ever during Homecoming 1977. The excitement began with the girls' football games, in which the seniors were victorious. During school hours, from Slave Day through Solid Color, Crazy, Nifty Fifties, and School Color Days, students and teachers alike participated.

The Geritol generation

Typical W.H.S. students

"Such style, such grace, such poise."

"Smile, Bill. You're on Candid Camera."

"What? You mean Barb broke the Guinness Book of World Records?!"

ACTIVITIES

Our next Howard Cosell?

In the pep assembly, student relays and teacher obstacle courses followed the announcing of Homecoming Queen, Sandra Wood, and King, Bill Hill. Not even the team's loss to Manistique could put a damper on the Patriot spirit. At the dance which followed the game on Friday, Free Flight joined in on the fun to end a successful Homecoming week.

Studying? What a rare sight to see!

There's nothing like eating and running.

The bear fact — Juniors won the hall decorations.

"Sparky" flares off to victory.

So reserved, quiet and shy?!

A lovely Queen, a handsome King, and their equally attractive court.

Touchdown!

Homecoming Queen, Mrs. Honkala??

Queen, Sandra Wood and King, Bill Hill

"Well? What are you staring at?"

"Odd, — long johns — ready, set, — any last words, Frosh?"

Some nervous candidates.

"Sherri, wanna boogie with me?"

Everyone has his ups and downs, Dale.

"Alright, who's at the bottom of this?"

STUDENT COUNCIL

Anita Olgren, Student Council President

The student council for 1977-1978 was perhaps the most active in the history of the school. These diligent members prepared a variety of entertaining activities throughout the school year, including the newest tradition, the spring thing. Several dances and an all-school "Gong Show" were also arranged by the council. Congratulations, council, for a job well done.

WINTER

Never before has Westwood's Winter Carnival been such a smashing success. The week's activities began with the election of the class sweethearts. The faculty and seniors entertained with two exciting exhibition games — the ladies in volleyball and the gents in basketball. Victorious were the women faculty and the senior boys.

Winter Carnival Class Sweethearts.

Hey cats, get a load of these mice!

"The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat."

"I've had enough! I'm heading for Florida."

A fast paced, hard-fought victory for the Patriots.

CARNIVAL

Tuesday and Wednesday were Dress Up Day and Famous Character Day, respectively. Winter Carnival Bingo was the big event on Thursday, and Friday, the traditional School Colors Day. The afternoon consisted of much frolicking in the drifts, snowman contests, races, and refreshments in the cafeteria.

Lori Perry, what a bird!

Free food always attracts a crowd.

"Star Wars" at Westwood?

A hop, a "Yip," and a jump.

The tug-o-war that ended in a "tie."

Isn't love grand?

Dean Joki, Lynne Clarke, Queen Sandy Hamel, King Paul Guizzetti, Lisa Allen, Dennis Johnson, Peggy Nylander, Mark Pontti — royalty accompanied by their court.

"Hot lips" strikes again!

"Isn't it nice to be royalty?"

"HARBOR LIGHTS"

The Grand March.

"I could have danced all night."

"I'll drink to that!"

"Are we going the wrong way?"

The crowning of the queen.

Lauren and Cindy — freshman helpers.

"You dance divinely, 'Sparky.' "

Prom-goers take a five.

"What?? We're going to McDonald's?"

One, two, three — one, two, three . . .

Harbor Lights — a successful prom.

THE SPRING THING

An impatient and expectant audience.

Scott Saari closes in for a senior victory.

Dennis Derocha paying attention as usual?!

An experimental but extremely successful activity, the "spring thing," gave students and faculty alike a chance to enjoy some of May's beautiful weather.

Gordon Lehtola with a brief lead closely followed by Brett and Scott. Competition too tough, juniors?

"I was told life would bring obstacles — but not like this!"

Senior, Jeff Nelso demonstrating winning techniques to underclassmen in the obstacle course.

"I'm so dizzy my head is spinning . . ."

SCHOLARSHIP: the goal toward which each high school student has been striving. This year's society was indeed a symbol of victory in this strife — 22 seniors were society members.

"I wish they would cut out the speeches and bring the food."

The Honor Society is honored with a dinner at the Mather Inn.

"As I give light to you, so may you give light to others . . ."

HONOR SOCIETY

"You can't leave until you eat every last drop!"

OFFICERS: Noreen Fegan, Peggy Nylander, Julie Randall, and Anita Olgren.

"Mr. Bobula, have you got any Roloids?"

"Munchies!"

"I've heard the early bird catches the worm — but this is ridiculous."

Members enjoy the dinner to honor them.

ACADEMIC AWARDS DAY

Mrs. Kososki congratulates a young, but successful debate team.

Mr. Uitto receives the debate trophy.

Mr. Kierczek recognizes a hard-working student council.

"Chuckie Baby, Chuckie Baby . . ."

A Marshall Dillon fan?

Another group of satisfied customers!??

A new sport — don't try it, you'll never miss it!

Keep them in line, Joe.

Santa! That's really an old line!

"Guilty? Who looks guilty?"

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE . . .

Charlie's Angels???

"And then Goldilocks said . . ."

"You just have to be kidding!"

"Let's see you beat this hand!"

"It has to be wide enough for Santa Claus."

SOME CANDID SHOTS

Boogie Fever

"Hey, where'd it go?"

"The Turning Point."

Darth Vader makes her Westwood debut?

"Oh gosh! My knees are showing!"

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT . . .

Long hours and painstaking work can have very satisfying results.

Mrs. Harrington guides students in artificial resuscitation.

Some girls greatly enjoying scuba diving instruction.

The overseer of the beautiful house pictured above.

Like the tiny seeds of a dandelion —
We began our journey in
The youthfulness of Spring.
One good rain could have washed us away . . .
But we held fast to our ground.
We took root,
And our fruitful sprouts showed the promise
Of full bloom.
Day by day
The sunshine nourished us,
And we matured.

Now the quest of our lifetime has been reached.
 Our beginning has ended
 And we are grown up —
 Like the dandelions in June.
 Soon we will bid farewell to the field
 That we call home —
 Only to be carried off by the winds of change
 To start a whole new life —
 Like the fleecy white seeds of a dandelion.

Cynthia Lyons

THE END . . .

Junior girls trying out their hoops.

Salutatorian, Beth Oja, addresses the assembly.

Interested onlookers and well wishers.

"Anticipation . . ."

So solemn?

THE BEGINNING

Ken Bruhnke, valedictorian, discusses the future.

The culmination of 13 years.

Mr. Hampton congratulates Cathy Saari.

It will soon be over . . .

"Champion, here we come!"

"Whew! I made it . . ."

Pretty posers.

"What did he say?"

Mr. Uitto presents the class of 1978.

"Can you believe it?"

The hoop carriers showing off their finery.

"Here we come, world!"

"It won't be long now."

"That's it; smile, Sandy."

"I guess all that practice paid off — but I'm so nervous!"

Carrie,

To a real nice friend
I met my freshman year. Remember me +
all the fun times working on the hall. Good luck in the future. Take care.
